

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY

MARCH 29, 2026

WHEREAS, education is the cornerstone of a strong and free society, determining what we know and shaping who we are. Education is more than the mere transmission of facts and figures; rather, it must prepare children for a life of responsibility and purpose, confirming and strengthening their moral character; and

WHEREAS, a global spiritual leader and leading advocate for the advancement of education, the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, stressed that a moral and ethical education empowers every individual to develop their full potential in making the world a better place; and

WHEREAS, such an education can nurture the unity of diverse peoples through encouraging increased acts of goodness and kindness, imbued with the awareness that even a single positive act of an individual can change the world and usher in an era of global peace; and

WHEREAS, March 29, 2026, will mark 124 years since the Rebbe's birth. From childhood, he envisioned a world of peace and tranquility for all and advanced the sacred responsibilities and ethical values known as the Seven Noahide Laws that have formed the bedrock of society since the dawn of civilization. To honor the Creator, respect life, reject violence, value family, promote generosity and build a just and moral society; and

WHEREAS, "Education & Sharing Day" is observed each year on the Rebbe's birthday in recognition of his outstanding and lasting contributions toward the improvement of education, morality and acts of charity around the world; a day to pause and reflect on our responsibility to ensure our youth have the foundation necessary to lead lives rich in purpose and fulfillment through service and good works.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
March 29, 2026, EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY in the State of North Dakota.

Kelly Armstrong
GOVERNOR
