

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

GET HOME SAFE DAY JUNE 1, 2026

WHEREAS, a job isn't solely about work — it's the financial backbone that supports a person's chosen lifestyle and enables them to pursue passions and hobbies with purpose and freedom; and

WHEREAS, even seemingly minor injuries can result in long-term physical, emotional and financial repercussions; and

WHEREAS, work not only sustains each of us but also has a ripple effect on friends, families and loved ones; and

WHEREAS, even if a workplace addresses safety, when things get busy and production ramps up, safety measures are often overlooked unless safety is a core part of the organization and the people within it; and

WHEREAS, we want to build a community in North Dakota where safety isn't just a priority — it's a way of life; and

WHEREAS, the Get Home Safe North Dakota safety movement seeks to reduce workplace injuries and fatalities by fostering a culture that values and protects every worker and ensures that our state remains a fantastic place to live and work.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
June 1, 2026, GET HOME SAFE DAY in the State of North Dakota.

Kelly Armstrong
GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Michael Howe
SECRETARY OF STATE
