

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY (YOM HASHOAH)

APRIL 14, 2026

WHEREAS, the state of North Dakota joins communities across the United States and around the world in honoring the memory of the 6 million Jews who were murdered during the Holocaust, as well as millions of other innocent victims of Nazi persecution; and

WHEREAS, the Holocaust stands as one of the most tragic and sobering events in human history and serves as a powerful reminder of the consequences of hatred, antisemitism, prejudice and indifference; and

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of all people to remember the victims and survivors of the Holocaust and to ensure that such atrocities are never forgotten nor repeated; and

WHEREAS, the people of North Dakota are committed to fostering communities grounded in respect, dignity and civic responsibility; and

WHEREAS, Holocaust Remembrance Day, known as Yom HaShoah, provides an opportunity to reflect upon the lessons of history, promote education and reaffirm our shared commitment to justice and human dignity; and

WHEREAS, institutions such as the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum and Yad Vashem play a vital role in preserving the memory of those lost and educating future generations about the consequences of hatred and intolerance; and

WHEREAS, all North Dakotans are encouraged to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies, reflection and educational activities that honor the victims, survivors and heroes of the Holocaust, and reaffirm our shared commitment to ensuring that such atrocities never happen again.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
April 14, 2026, HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY in the State of North Dakota.

Kelly Armstrong
GOVERNOR
