

State of North Dakota

Office of the Governor

Doug Burgum
Governor

PROCLAMATION
MONIQUE AND JOCELYNE LAMOUREUX DAY
March 8, 2018

WHEREAS, Monique and Jocelyne Lamoureux are the first North Dakotans ever to win a gold medal at the Olympics; and

WHEREAS, Monique and Jocelyne Lamoureux each had a game changing moment to help their team win the gold; and

WHEREAS, Monique and Jocelyne Lamoureux made the most of every opportunity they were given and have proven that with dedication and hard work, you can accomplish your goals and make your dreams come true; and

WHEREAS, Monique and Jocelyne Lamoureux have demonstrated true leadership sportsmanship and North Dakota values both on and off the ice throughout their Olympic journeys; and

WHEREAS, Monique and Jocelyne Lamoureux are the only North Dakotans to win more than one Olympic medal and are now three-time Olympians, winning silver in 2010 and 2014 and gold in 2018; and

WHEREAS, Monique and Jocelyne Lamoureux have represented the City of Grand Forks, the State of North Dakota and the United States of America on the world's biggest stage with the most exemplary behavior.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim March 8, 2018, MONIQUE AND JOCELYNE LAMOUREUX DAY in the State of North Dakota.

A blue ink signature of Doug Burgum, written in a cursive style, positioned above a horizontal line.

Doug Burgum
Governor

ATTEST:

A blue ink signature of Alvin A. Jaeger, written in a cursive style, positioned above a horizontal line.

Alvin A. Jaeger
Secretary of State