

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

ADULT EDUCATION AND FAMILY LITERACY WEEK

SEPTEMBER 15-19, 2025

WHEREAS, thousands of adults in North Dakota are in need of assistance in order to qualify for better-paying or more fulfilling jobs, complete their GED, achieve a post-secondary education, enter the state's workforce or improve their English language skills; and

WHEREAS, adult education programs in North Dakota offer low-cost, high-value education alternatives across the state to help citizens achieve the basic skills to become workforce ready, advance in the workplace, prepare for post-secondary education or increase their literacy in the English language; and

WHEREAS, adult education can often provide this assistance by offering educational alternatives through a decentralized system that is within financial and geographic reach of anyone in North Dakota; and

WHEREAS, adult education programs in North Dakota's high schools, adult learning centers, and community colleges provide a second opportunity for learners to improve their lives and become more productive citizens and workers; and

WHEREAS, North Dakota celebrates Adult Education and Family Literacy Week as a proud participant in the national Educate & Elevate Campaign which helps our citizens learn about all of their Adult Education options to attain their professional and personal goals.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
September 15-19, 2025, ADULT EDUCATION AND FAMILY LITERACY WEEK in the State of North Dakota.

Kelly Armstrong
GOVERNOR

ATTEST:
Michael Howe
SECRETARY OF STATE