

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

AGRICULTURE WEEK

MARCH 22-28, 2026

AGRICULTURE DAY

MARCH 24, 2026

WHEREAS, agriculture has a long history in North Dakota, from the first Native American farmers to the settlers who migrated here in search of opportunity to today where agriculture continues to be one of the most important industries in the state; and

WHEREAS, North Dakota agriculture provides healthy, wholesome food to families in our state, across the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, agriculture is a leading segment of North Dakota's economy, and North Dakota ranks among the top 10 states in production of over 20 crops and No. 1 in the United States in production of all dry edible beans, pinto beans, canola, flaxseed, honey, oats, rye, non-oil sunflowers, oil sunflowers, durum wheat and spring wheat; and

WHEREAS, agriculture contributes to the social vitality of North Dakota, inspiring a deep appreciation for the land and the belief in the ideal of neighbor helping neighbor; and

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim March 22-28, 2026, AGRICULTURE WEEK and March 24, 2026, AGRICULTURE DAY in the State of North Dakota.
