

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

GIVING TUESDAY MILITARY, DAY OF KINDNESS DECEMBER 2, 2025

WHEREAS, Giving Tuesday Military, Day of Kindness is observed annually on the Tuesday following Thanksgiving as a national movement inspiring generosity, unity and meaningful community service; and

WHEREAS, intentional acts of kindness and community support create lasting, positive impact when individuals come together with compassion and shared purpose; and

WHEREAS, empowering individuals across the state of North Dakota strengthens civic engagement, fosters belonging and builds resilient, connected communities; and

WHEREAS, on this day, North Dakotans are encouraged to devote their time, energy and resources to uplifting and recognizing first responders, medical personnel, teachers and military service members who selflessly serve our communities each day; and

WHEREAS, engaging citizens of all ages, backgrounds, genders and ethnicities in acts of service cultivates a statewide spirit of generosity, unity and shared responsibility.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
December 2, 2025, GIVING TUESDAY MILITARY, DAY OF KINDNESS
in the State of North Dakota.

Kelly Armstrong
GOVERNOR

ATTEST:
Michael Howe
SECRETARY OF STATE