

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

INSURANCE AWARENESS DAY

JUNE 28, 2025

WHEREAS, insurance serves as a financial lifeline for families, individuals and businesses facing financial hardship; and

WHEREAS, insurance is a vital component of North Dakota's financial services industry; and

WHEREAS, insurance provides coverage for various aspects of the lives of North Dakotans, including auto, life, health and homeowners policies, among others; and

WHEREAS, North Dakota boasts a competitive insurance marketplace with more than 2,500 insurance companies conducting business in the state, with over 25 being domiciled in North Dakota; and

WHEREAS, the North Dakota Insurance Department, led by the state's elected insurance commissioner, takes pride in protecting consumers and advocates for a fair and competitive insurance market; and

WHEREAS, the North Dakota Insurance Department provides assistance to insurance consumers and Medicare recipients on questions regarding their policies so they can make educated decisions and resolve issues; and

WHEREAS, North Dakotans are encouraged to review their existing insurance coverage and work with a licensed agent to ensure that their coverage needs are met.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
June 28, 2025, INSURANCE AWARENESS DAY in the State of North Dakota.

Kelly Armstrong
GOVERNOR

ATTEST:
Michael Howe
SECRETARY OF STATE