

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

YOUTHWORKS DAY

NOVEMBER 6, 2025

WHEREAS, the month of November is recognized as national Youth HOPE Month – bringing awareness to the issue of youth Homelessness Outreach, Prevention and Education throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS, Youthworks has been providing hope and help to homeless, runaway, trafficked and at-risk youth throughout North Dakota for 40 years; and

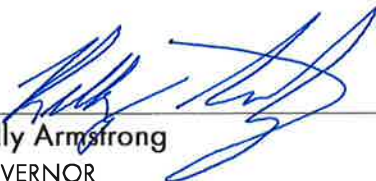

WHEREAS, Youthworks has expanded to meet the needs of youth throughout North Dakota, offering services from locations in Bismarck, Fargo, Minot, Grand Forks and Dickinson; and

WHEREAS, Youthworks served 1,356 youths in North Dakota communities in 2024, providing more than 37,000 hours of direct services and support to help ensure that they have a safe place to belong – in their homes, schools and communities; and

WHEREAS, Youthworks is committed to continuing to adapt and respond to meet the needs of this vulnerable but remarkable population of North Dakota youth in our state and region for many years to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
November 6, 2025, YOUTHWORKS DAY in the State of North Dakota.

Kelly Armstrong
GOVERNOR

ATTEST:
Michael Howe
SECRETARY OF STATE