NEW HIGHWAY PATROL SUPERINTENDENT NAMED

Gov. Doug Burgum announced the cabinet's newest member this week, selecting North Dakota Highway Patrol Maj. Brandon Solberg to oversee the agency. Burgum cited Solberg's proven leadership experience and history in both field and administrative roles during his more than 22 years in law enforcement. The governor also expressed his gratitude for Col. Michael Gerhart, who is retiring from the Highway Patrol on June 30 after four years as superintendent and more than 26 years with the agency. Solberg has been with the Highway Patrol for nearly two decades, including more than 10 years as a commander at patrol headquarters in the Capitol.
Gov. Burgum, Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem, Supreme Court Chief Justice Gerald VandeWalle and others paid tribute Wednesday to law enforcement officers who died in the line of duty – and all men and women in uniform – during the 2018 Peace Officers Memorial Day ceremony hosted at the Capitol by the North Dakota Peace Officers Association. The names of 64 North Dakotans are engraved on the Peace Officers Memorial east of the Capitol's Judicial Wing.
C-SPAN BUS VISITS BISMARCK
The Capitol had a special visitor on Wednesday as the C-SPAN bus came to town. North Dakota was the 34th stop on the network’s #50CapitalsTour, which celebrates the 25th year of the bus traveling the country. Gov. Burgum appeared live from the bus on “Washington Journal” being interviewed by host Peter Slen and taking questions from callers.

SADD STUDENT OF THE YEAR RECOGNIZED
Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) on Tuesday presented Lauren Roscoe of New Rockford, N.D., as its 2018-19 SADD Student of the Year (SOY) during a recognition ceremony at the Capitol. Gov. Burgum and First Lady Kathryn Helgaas Burgum were on hand to help celebrate Roscoe and her accomplishments. Roscoe will receive the SOY Scholarship for $1,000 and is eligible for a leadership experience at the U.S. Department of Transportation’s National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in Washington, D.C., in the summer of 2019.
