

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

COMMUNITY ACTION AWARENESS MONTH MAY 2022

WHEREAS, the Community Action Partnership of North Dakota has seven agencies working statewide to help low-income North Dakotans break the cycle of poverty and achieve self-sufficiency; and

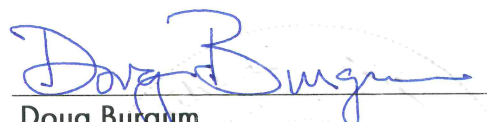

WHEREAS, community action agencies have been serving low-income families and individuals in every county in North Dakota for more than 50 years; and

WHEREAS, community action agencies provide numerous services to low-income North Dakotans, including Head Start, housing and emergency assistance, child and adult care, food programs, energy assistance programs, prevention programs, support services for veteran families, individual development accounts, child care and many others; and

WHEREAS, community action agencies, in partnership with the public and private sectors, continue to identify poverty conditions and find solutions to empower people, improve lives and inspire success.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
May 2022, COMMUNITY ACTION AWARENESS MONTH in the State of North Dakota.

Doug Burgum
