

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

PROCLAMATION

HUNGER AND HOMELESSNESS AWARENESS WEEK NOVEMBER 16-22, 2025

WHEREAS, hunger and homelessness remain pressing challenges for individuals and families across North Dakota, affecting people in every community and walk of life; and

WHEREAS, stable housing and access to nutritious food are essential to the health, safety and well-being of all North Dakotans; and

WHEREAS, local communities, organizations and agencies across the state are working together to provide safe, affordable housing and vital support services to those in need; and

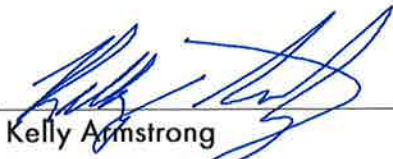

WHEREAS, public awareness and community involvement are critical to addressing the root causes of hunger and homelessness and helping our neighbors achieve stability and self-sufficiency; and

WHEREAS, the week of November 16-22, 2025, has been declared National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week; and

WHEREAS, North Dakotans have a proud tradition of compassion and generosity, demonstrating a strong commitment to helping one another in times of need. All North Dakotans are encouraged to develop an understanding of the issues surrounding hunger and homelessness and recognize that many people do not possess those basic needs, and deserve support from citizens and private and public nonprofit organizations.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim
November 16-22, 2025, HUNGER AND HOMELESSNESS AWARENESS WEEK in the State of North Dakota.

Kelly Armstrong
GOVERNOR

ATTEST:
Michael Howe
SECRETARY OF STATE