

State of North Dakota

Office of the Governor

Doug Burgum
Governor

PROCLAMATION
LYNCH SYNDROME DAY
MARCH 22, 2018

WHEREAS, there are more than 1.1 million people in the United States suffering from Lynch Syndrome; and

WHEREAS, the number of people diagnosed who have Lynch Syndrome is at only 5 percent, leaving many North Dakotans undiagnosed and untreated; and

WHEREAS, preventative health care measures have shown great promise in reducing the life-altering damage caused by Lynch Syndrome; and

WHEREAS, constant maintenance and early diagnosis are both incredibly cost-effective and lessen the burden on state health institutions and North Dakotans; and

WHEREAS, North Dakotans are encouraged to recognize those suffering from lynch syndrome to help bring awareness to this disorder. By doing so, North Dakotan lives will be saved through increased awareness and testing.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim March 22, 2018, LYNCH SYNDROME DAY in the State of North Dakota.

A blue ink signature of Doug Burgum, written over a horizontal line.

Doug Burgum
Governor

ATTEST:

A blue ink signature of Alvin A. Jaeger, written over a horizontal line.

Alvin A. Jaeger
Secretary of State

A blue ink signature of the Deputy Secretary of State, written over a horizontal line.

Deputy