PROCLAMATION
YOUTH TEMPERANCE EDUCATION WEEK
APRIL 21-27, 2019

WHEREAS, the abuse of alcohol and drugs has created economic and social problems resulting in the destruction of family relationships and costs to the public; and

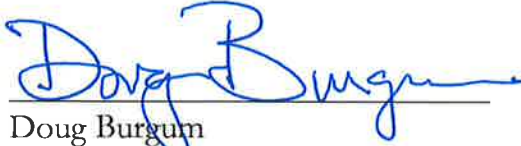

WHEREAS, alcohol and drug abuse awareness and education are needed to inform young people and opinion-makers about the dangers of such abuse and the disease of addiction; and

WHEREAS, civic, educational, and social organizations across the state are working to keep our youths drug and alcohol free through education programs and information campaigns designed to promote abstinence and to eliminate the shame and stigma of addiction; and

WHEREAS, the North Dakota Woman's Christian Temperance Union is partnering with schools, churches and libraries in the state to provide materials and activities to educate our youths on the benefits of a drug- and alcohol-free lifestyle; and

WHEREAS, our youths are our greatest resource, and by keeping them drug and alcohol free, we are guiding them toward a future of hope and opportunity.

NOW, THEREFORE, as Governor of the State of North Dakota, I do hereby proclaim April 21-27, 2019, YOUTH TEMPERANCE EDUCATION WEEK in the State of North Dakota.
